MICHAEL F. EASLEY
GOVERNOR

LIVESTRONG DAY

2007

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, according to the North Carolina State Center for Health Statistics, cancer is the 2nd leading cause of death in North Carolina; and

WHEREAS, according to the American Cancer Society, in 2007 there will be an estimated 38,210 new cancer cases in North Carolina; and

WHEREAS, 3 out of 4 people in their lifetime will have a family member diagnosed with cancer, 1 in 3 women and 1 in 2 men will be diagnosed with cancer in their lifetime, and 1.4 million people will be diagnosed this year; and

WHEREAS, according to the American Cancer Society, there will be an estimated 16,880 cancer-related deaths in North Carolina in 2007; and

WHEREAS, more than 565,000 Americans are expected to die from cancer this year, African-American men and women have the highest mortality rates for all cancer sites combined, and cancer is the number one killer of those under age 85; and

WHEREAS, the cost of cancer last year was $210 billion; and

WHEREAS, the state of North Carolina has concern and compassion for people affected by cancer; and

WHEREAS, by uniting people affected by cancer to raise awareness through education, prevention, screening and early detection efforts, we gain strength in the fight against cancer in North Carolina; and

WHEREAS, we are committed to ensure all cancer patients are treated with compassion and respect, and are provided with the tools and resources necessary to battle the physical, emotional and practical challenges of a cancer diagnosis; and

WHEREAS, North Carolina is home to the University of North Carolina, Duke University, Wake Forest University, and many cancer treatment facilities; and

WHEREAS, Livestrong Day exemplifies the spirit of people affected by cancer—survivors, caregivers, friends, family, physicians, nurses, social workers and researchers throughout North Carolina;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MICHAEL F. EASLEY, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim May 16, 2007, as "LIVESTRONG DAY" in North Carolina and commend this observance to our citizens.
